

WEDNESDAY MARCH 21, 1744

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France.

Naples, March 3.

THE King going some Days ago to Villa Portici, met upon the Road four Criminals, who, for small Offences, were committed to the Gallies. The People crowding about them, were very importunate with the King for their Pardon, which his Majesty granted, and the Populace rejoiced exceedingly. The Queen being enter'd into the fifth Month of her Pregnancy, has been lately let Blood by way of Precaution. We redouble our military Preparations, in order to put the Kingdom into the best State of Defence possible; having certain Intelligence, that the Spaniards must speedily take Shelter in our Dominions; and that, in all Probability, they will be followed by the Austrians. We are daily taking up Molecontents, upon which many Persons of Distinction have absconded; and it is very visible that there is a mighty Ferment among the People, and that the Administration are extremely embarrassed.

Genoa, March 7. His Sardinian Majesty is actually arriv'd at Nice, where he has an Army of 17,000 Men, old Troops, exclusive of Barbets and Vaudois. The English Men of War are again before the Port of Toulon, and keep it in a manner block'd up. We are so apprehensive of seeing Final speedily besieged, that the Republic is resolv'd to form an Army of 12,000 Men; in order to which, new Commissions are daily issued, and all the Forces in Corsica are recalled, notwithstanding we have certain Intelligence, that Baron Theodore has renew'd his Intrigues in that Island, and that he has a strong Party there, who only wait the Supplies he has promised, to declare themselves. A Master of a Ship who arriv'd here Yesterday, asserts, that 12,000 Men are assembling in Istria, which, it is thought, are intended to make a Descent on the Kingdom of Naples, at the same Time Prince Lobkowitz invades it by Land.

Brussels, March 21. The Troops that were ready to embark for England have been countermanded, and we daily expect the Recruits that are to come from that Country. According to our last Advices from Dunkirk, they have not only debark'd the Troops, but have also begun to land the Ammunition and Arms; so that we should conclude, that the French had entirely abandon'd their Designs on that Side, if the Embargo was not still continued; which, however, is supposed to be done only with a View to restrain the English from sending over Forces hither. While that Affair was at the height, there were no less than 15 General Officers, and 27 Battalions of the best Troops of France in that Town, and in the Villages adjacent; and it is said, that this Expedition, first and last, has cost his most Christian Majesty Ten Millions of Livres. There is a Report here, as if he was fallen Sick upon the Disappointment.

Extract from the Paris Alman.

Paris, March 26. We are assured, that the King will set out for Fontainebleau, immediately after the Review.

The First Battalion of French Guards will begin their March for Flanders on the 28th, where all the Household Troops will follow them immediately.

The Colonels that are to serve in Alsace, have Orders to repair to their Regiments in the Beginning of the Month of April.

The Conde de Montijo is shortly expected here again from Madrid, with a new Commission.

The Count de Saxe has been here some Days from Dunkirk.

There has appeared here lately a Declaration from the King, by which he reunites to the Domain of the Townhouse of Paris, the Duties lately imposed upon Wines, for 15 Years, by the Edicts of December last.

We are assured, that Orders have been issued to all the Notaries of this City, to bring in an exact Account, to the Lieutenant-Civil, of all the Deposits that are, or shall be made, in their Hands, in order to prevent the bad Effects of fraudulent Bankruptcies.

The Court has given Directions for prosecuting the two Masters of Tartans, that brought the first News of the late Engagement in the Mediterranean.

They write from Toulon, that 17 Transports had lately taken the Opportunity of the Absence of the English Fleet, to sail from Barcelona for that Port; and that 20 more were daily expected.

We learn from Marseilles, that three Gallies, having each of them 400 Men on board, were sail'd from thence on the 21st, in order to succour the Fleet that lately went from Toulon.

They write from Avignon, that the Infant Don Philip had pass'd thro' that City, in his Way to Antibes; and that the Duke of Modena had, in the Beginning of this Month, gone from Venice, back to the Spanish Army in Romagna.

We learn, by Advices from Balle, that 6000 Swiss raised lately for the Service of France, are to march immediately from the Moselle, in order to join the Regiments into which they are to be incorporated, by Way of Augmentation.

Our Letters from Brest say, that the Squadron of M. de Roqueville having been separated by the Winds into three Divisions; the First was on the Coast of Kent, to the Number of 14 Ships, the Second in the Road of Dunkirk, being six or seven Ships, the Third, of the same Number, between Calais and Boulogne.

Actions 2015.

I R E L A N D.

Dublin, March 10. Last Tuesday in the Evening a Party of Soldiers were put on board the French Ships under an Embargo in our River.

Monday last died at his House in Jervis-street, Capt. Brent Smith, late Keeper of his Majesty's Stores in the Castle.

The same Night a Coachman driving his Coach and Horses into the Liffy, at Dirty Lane Slip, to wash them, the Flood, which was very great, occasioned by the late heavy Rains, carried them down the River, and the Man and Horses were drowned.

We hear from Kinsale that one O'Hara is taken up there on Suspicion; he appeared there as a Beggar, but is said to be a Priest, in Disguise, and by some Papers found with him, they find he has travelled through England and Part of this Kingdom; and, by the Account of his Expences, he has at some Places spent 16l. in a Day. We hear also, that the Governor of Kinsale has received Information upon Oath, that some Chests of Arms have been landed at Donaghaven; and that a Party of Men are sent to search for them.

Yesterday Three Companies of Col. Richbell's Regiment of Foot embarked here for Park Gate.

The same Day several Chests of Arms were carried from his Majesty's Stores in the Castle, under a strong Guard, to the Country; and a large Train of Artillery is getting ready to be sent down to Arbroath, and other Places.

Cosby Nesbitt, Esq. is appointed Collector of the County of Cavan, in the room of his Father, Thomas Nesbitt, Esq.

Packham Betty, Esq. is appointed Collector of Wexford. And,

Tottenham, Esq. is made Surveyor of the said Port.

Extract of a private Letter from Waterford by the last Post.

We had a prodigious Hurry here this Day, occasioned by a Parcel of Scoundrels assembling together last Night, near the Magazine; Mr. Boyde's Coachman going by, heard them swear they would throw the two Centinels into the River; they fired two or three Shots; a Company of Men marched down from the Barrack, but they were all dispersed before they came up; 'tis said, they were a Parcel of drunken Newfoundland-Men; there was a Proclamation issued out this Day by the Mayor, offering a Reward of 50l. to any Person that would discover them; it happened not far from my House, and we heard nothing of it till this Day: 'Tis said the Roman Catholics have offered a Reward of 30l. to have any one of them discovered or apprehended.

All the Grand Juries and principal Gentlemen of the different Counties thro' which the Judges of Assize have already pass'd, are very warm in their Zeal for his Majesty's Service; and in their Resentments against those who dare attempt to disturb their Quiet under his Government. Many very dutiful and loyal Addresses have been sent from several Counties, to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, to be transmitted to his Majesty.

The Titular Bishop of Waterford hath surrendered himself to the Mayor of that City.

On the 13th Inst. his Grace the Lord Lieutenant issued a Proclamation for the Proroguing the Parliament from Thursday the 15th Inst. to Tuesday the 3d of July next.

H O M E P O R T S.

Pass'd by the Hartley, Willson, for Virginia. The Four French Men of War who were at Dunkirk, are gone thro' Calais Road, in their Way to Brest; the Seamen that went from Calais, to help man, are returned home, and every Thing looks as if this Expedition was, for the present, laid aside.

L O N D O N.

Private Letters from Paris say, that prodigious Respect is paid to the Count de Rottenbourg, who is there the King of Prussia, in order to execute, as the Court will have it believed, a Secret Commission; tho' it is whisper'd, that he is come, in reality, on quite another Errand.

It is given out at Versailles, that Count Maurice of Saxony will speedily set out for Dunkirk; however that may be, Count de Maurepaix makes no Secret of declaring, that there will be speedily a War; and that therefore the Merchants would do well to take Care of their Effects.

We are inform'd, that Part of the Dutch Forces will be quartered in Colchester, and other great Towns in Essex, and the rest in Hertfordshire. They are very fine Forces, new clothed, and in high Spirits.

His Majesty's Ship the Ludlow-Castle, Capt. Charles Stevens, is condemn'd at Antigua; and we hear, that the Captain will come Home Passenger in his Majesty's Ship the Deal-Castle, Capt. Godard, who was to sail the latter End of January, from Antigua.

Yesterday the Court of Aldermen presented the Rev. Mr. Thomas (a Relation of Sir John Barnard) Minister of Moulsey, in Surry, to the Rectory of St. Peter, in Cornhill, a Living worth 300l. per Annum, vacant by the Death of Dr. Middleton. There were many Candidates who were reduced to Two, and the Numbers for them were;

For Dr. Banier 11
Mr. Thomas 12

The same Day the Rev. Mr. Barnes was chofe Lecturer of St. Bride's Parish, in the room of Dr. Middleton, deceased.

On Monday last died, after a few Days Illness, at his Chambers in Clement's Inn, ——— Curtis, Esq. Counsellor at Law.

Yesterday a Battalion of the Second Regiment of Foot Guards arriv'd in Town from Kent; and this Day they are to march into the Savoy, in order to relieve Major-General Guise's Regiment, who are order'd into the North.

This Day a Battalion of the First Regiment of Foot Guards is expected in Town from Kent, and are to do Duty in the Tower, instead of General Wentworth's, who are order'd to Berwick upon Tweed.

From the London Gazette.

Brussels, March 25. Continuation of the Advices from Dunkirk, from the 13th to the 21st Instant.

March 13. The Weather was still very bad Yesterday. Only four Vessels sail'd with Troops were able to come into Port with the Morning Tide. Another Transport-Ship, having cut away her Masts in the bad Weather, was forced upon the Coast over-against the new Batteries; Count de Donge, Colonel of the Regiment of Soisson, with Part of his Regiment was on board; but they all landed after the going out of the Tide. There was again, in the Afternoon, another Ship on Shore near the Port, but all the Troops in her were saved. The Ships of M. de Barail's Squadron drove, and have lost their Cables and Anchors. This Day, the Weather being fair, five or six Ships, some of which had French and Swiss Troops on board, are come in. As the Wind is favourable for going out, they have got ready some fresh Supplies of Provisions and Naval Stores to send to those who are in the Road. There is yet no News of M. de Rocqueville.

March 16. Yesterday the Letters of five Post delivered out at once. Those for Foreign have been stop'd 17 Days, though the Orders were be, to detain them only two, during which Time, it was thought the Design might be effected, but it has proved otherwise. Expresses are continually coming and going from hence to Court.

March 17. Yesterday in the Evening two Couriers arrived here, one of them from Brest; who reports, that M. de Roquefeulle had got into that Port, very much shattered. The other brought Leave for the Departure of the Generals; in consequence of which, some of them went from hence immediately, and the others are gone To-day, all extremely chagrined with the shameful Issue of this ill-concerted Enterprize. But 12 Battalions now remain here, and one Lieutenant-General, two Major-Generals, and two Brigadiers. M. D'Apcher will set out on Sunday, and M. Barail, who commands the Men of War in the Road, will sail, as is said, with the first fair Wind for Brest.

March 21. The Generals and Field-Officers are all gone, excepting those who are to have the Command of the 12 Battalions which are left here. It is now reported, that of the Brest Squadron, only the Division under the Chevalier de Camilli, has been able to get into that Port. This Division consists but of eight Ships, and there is no News of the 12 others under the Command of M. de Roquefeulle. M. de Barail has now but four Ships under his Command, the 5th having parted from him in the late Storms. He still continues in the Road, waiting for a fair Wind to carry him to Brest.

Whitehall, March 20. The King has been pleased to appoint Onslow Barrish, Esq; to be his Majesty's Resident at the Court of Brussels, and also at that of Liege.

Preserving the TEETH and GUMS of a beautiful Colour, and for Curing the TOOTH-ACH. Publish'd by Virtue of the KING's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT:

An ABSTRACT of which is as follows,
GEORGE R.

GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. to all whom these Presents shall come greeting. Whereas Our Trusty and Well-beloved Thomas Greenough, of St. Sepulchre's, in Our City of London, Apothecary, has represented unto Us, that at a considerable Expence, and much Study, he has at last found out and invented a MEDICINE that destroys the SCURVY in the GUMS, fastens the TEETH, preserves them white and beautiful, freshens the BREATH, and effectually cures the TOOTH-ACH, as Multitudes of Our Subjects have happily experienced, &c. And We being willing to give Encouragement to all Arts and Inventions which may be for the publick Good, know ye therefore, that We, of Our especial Grace, certain Knowledge, and mere Motion, have given and granted, and by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do give and grant unto the said Thomas Greenough, his Assigns, &c. and such Person only as they shall agree with, Our especial Licence, full Power, sole Privilege and Authority, to vend the same, &c. And we do by these Presents strictly command all our Subjects not to put in Practice the said Invention, nor in any Ways counterfeit, imitate, or resemble the same, as they will answer their Contempt of this Our Royal Command.

In Witness whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent.

Witness OUR SELF at Westminster, the 9th Day of February, in the Seventh Year of Our Reign.

Notwithstanding the Complaints of the Teeth and Gums are so general, and the Pain of the Tooth-Ach so intense and intolerable, no Medicine has yet been offer'd the Publick which carries the least Shew or Probability of curing either. For cleaning the Teeth, and making them white, the Powders have hitherto bid the fairest, and will in a great Measure answer that Purpose; but then the Remedy is worse than the Disease, for those very Powders sub away the Gums, wear off the Enamel from the Teeth, leave their bony Substance expos'd to Air, and thereby subject the Teeth to Decay: A Consequence bad enough!

Nor are the Methods of curing the Tooth-Ach much better calculated, there being nothing yet propos'd but Drawing, or the Use of such Medicines as tend to destroy the Nerve of the Tooth, and of course the Tooth itself.

The Reason we have hitherto had no effectual Remedy for either of those Complaints, seems to be this, That the Cause of the Disorder has not been rightly understood. 'Tis what the Faculty have seldom concern'd themselves with, and therefore it has for the most part been left to the Province of People quite unskill'd in Anatomy and Physick, from whom little Benefit can be expected.

Experience tells us, that a Diffusion of Humours is the true Cause of the Pain, and that a too weak and lax Texture of the Fibres that compose the Gums (the Consequences of which are, that the Blood and Humours of the Parts become liable to a Stagnation, or weak Circulation, from whence they grow putrid, sharp, acrimonious, and corrosive) is the true Reason of the other Disorders of the Teeth, and of the Scurvy in the Gums.

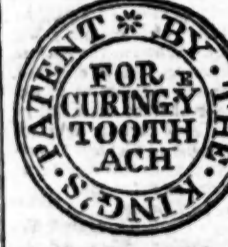

To cure, therefore, the Tooth-Ach, a Medicine should be applied that will both attenuate and discuss the Humours, and prevent a further Diffusion; and to remedy the other Disorders of the Teeth and Gums, such Things should be made Use of as will strengthen and brace up the Fibres, and promote the Circulation of the Humours; and 'tis upon this Basis that the present Medicine is founded.

The above Medicine, that it may be more effectual, and be more conveniently used, is divided into two Tinctures:

The One for Preserving the TEETH,

Which in a few times using perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, causes them to grow down close and regular to the Teeth, makes the foulest Teeth white and beautiful, preserves them from growing rotten, and keeps such as are decay'd from becoming worse; and in a little Time removes the Cause of an ill-scented Breath, except where the Lungs are ulcerated. Each Bottle of this Tincture is seal'd with the above Impression in Red Wax. Price One Shilling.

The other for Curing the TOOTH-ACH,

Even when most violent; into which a larger Proportion of some of the Ingredients (with a little Variation) is put, to make it more immediately effectual. Each Bottle of this Tincture is likewise seal'd as in the Margin, with Black Wax. Price One Shilling.

N.B. By Virtue of the Patent above-mention'd, I have appointed John Newbery, my only Vendor of these Tinctures, to whom all Persons are desir'd to apply for them, at his Warehouse, the Bible and Crown, near Devereaux-Court, without Temple-Bar, London, and at his Shop in Reading, Berks: At which Places, Merchants, Captains of Ships, and Country-Dealers, will have good Allowance to sell again; and particular Bills in any Language will be printed for such as take Quantities for Foreign Parts.

Sold also retail at my House, near St. Sepulchre's Church, on Snow-Hill, London.

THOMAS GREENOUGH.

To prevent Mistakes observe the following Direction.—If you have any Disorder in the TEETH, GUMS, or BREATH, ask for the Tincture for preserving the Teeth; but if you are afflicted with a Pain in the TEETH only, then ask for the Tincture for curing the TOOTH-ACH.

BALSAMICK STYPTICK
Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's last Dwelling House, now Mrs. DUTTON's, in Salisbury Court, Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains, in a most surprising Manner, all internal as well as external us bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting of blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Menstrua, or bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if used according to the plain Directions given with it) will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians, a lie before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, in all Climates; therefore must be universally useful.

The Doctor not only obtaining his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine, but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inspection of the Council or the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N.B. The late Learned Dr. CHEYNE, in his Excellent Piece, entitled The Natural Method of curing the Diseases of the Body, &c. prefers EATON'S STYPTICK to Helvetius's and other Stypticks; and speaks of it as follows:—'Every one knows the agglutinating Quality of sweet Blood, and I apprehend it is to this, that EATON'S Styptick owes its mild, soothing Efficacy. It is more mild, soothing, and soft, than the mildest Steel Preparations, and more so to the acrid and inflam'd flowing Blood of the Patient. As I say, he is confirmed in this by a Physician of great Worth and Candor, who has great Opportunities of dealing in such Cases, by his Practice in Middlesex. See p. 124.'

To Persons of either Sex Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISORDERS, PARALYSIS, and PARALYTIC DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Afflictions, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and bowels as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon find all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Relaxation of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, too drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expels Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their prime Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Drops suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patient themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Bar to low the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 2s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.
